

I hate being disturbed by tele marketers. I have four children and try and do home work with them when phone keeps ringing and being tele marketers. If I need some thing I will find it. I don't need them pestering me.